REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Seven Oaks Elementary School (SOES) has maintained a tradition of excellence to teaching and learning over its span of 41 years. In the fall of 2007, SOES learned that it met the requirements for Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) in all categories! Floride Caulder was named Teacher of the Year, Kathy Faust was named our Distinguished Teacher of Reading, and Cindy Carroll was named Support Employee of the Year.

In the 2007-2008 school year, SOES continued along its path of academic success and advancements in balanced literacy. The use of "Dominie Assessments" extended from Kindergarten and 1st grades into 2nd and 3rd grades. This not only allowed us to measure growth in each of those grade levels, but to track student growth across grade levels each year. It also allowed teachers to identify areas for instruction, which fostered a need for collaborative planning for strategic intervention. Seven Oaks is also on the path to integrating technology into the classrooms. All classrooms are equipped with SmartBoard technology, and each teacher has a webpage to assist with communication between school and home.

Community involvement is a key component to Seven Oaks, and this year there were many events, people, and businesses to celebrate. Our 13th Annual Festival of Races was held in October, involving students and a health fair for families; our faculty and staff participated in the First Lady's Walk for Life; the Seven Oaks Boys and Girls Club collected the most canned goods of all Midland's schools for the Harvest Hope Food Bank; and ESOL Family Nights involved ESOL students and families district-wide and were led by Becky Krantz, ESOL teacher at Seven Oaks.

The people and businesses in our community are vital to our success. This year's Volunteer of the Year was Barry Stutts, who has served as an officer on the PTA Board, the Spring Carnival Committee, and has directed fundraisers. The Business Partner of the Year was Subway, and they generously provided food for our staff throughout the year. And the Volunteer Organization of the Year was Columbia Crossroads Church, which provided an after-school homework center, volunteers for our garden project, and lunch for our staff.

In celebrating the success of our students, Seven Oaks had a fifth-grade student who was recognized by the Office of the Governor for her drawing in the Safe Kids Calendar Contest, and two students were selected to perform with the South Carolina Elementary Honors Choir.

Our PTA continues to be the thread of continued support that is so important to our school. This year's PTA fundraising campaigns have raised money for guidance projects, media center books, agendas, courtyard beautification projects, grade-level needs, and special projects.
